23rd October, 2009..

Dear Parent(s) / Guardian,

As a parent of a teenage daughter you will be aware of the joy and challenge of navigating your way through the teen years. The school would like to support you in your efforts to do this.

I am pleased to tell you that the SPHE (Social, Personal, Health Education) Regional Co-ordinator Martha Sweeney has accepted the school's invitation to facilitate two evenings on the subject of 'Parenting your child through the teen years'. It is a wonderful opportunity and promises to be most informative. If you are the parent / guardian of a first, second or third year student you will gain a lot from attending the meeting(s). As a parent you will want to guide and direct your daughter on how to support herself physically, mentally and socially through life. The information evenings will offer positive insights in this regard.

An opportunity will be given to discuss issues pertaining to first year students and I have no doubt that the parents of second and third year students will be able to give helpful hints also on the matter!

The meetings will take place on Thursday 5th November and Thursday 12th November 2009 in the Presentation Parents Room at 8.00pm and will finish punctually at 9.30pm.

Yours sincerely,

Netta Kennedy (HSCL)
